The new TA6 form will become compulsory for CQS firms on June 25th and are complicated in the extreme with plenty of scope for misrepresentation and negligence. The webinar aims to look at some of the issues. Topics covered will include:

- Enquiries generally and how to avoid misrepresentation.
- The Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations.
- Material Information.
- New solar panel enquiries.
- New Japanese Knotweed enquiries.
- Building Safety Act and Leasehold enquiries.

Richard Snape has been the Head of Professional Support at Davitt Jones Bould since 2002. He speaks at numerous courses for law societies all over the country, various public courses, in-house seminars within solicitors' firms and has also talked extensively to local authorities and central government bodies. His areas of specialism include both commercial and residential property, in particular in relation to local government law, conveyancing issues, development land, commercial property and incumbrances in relation to land.
