Ground rent issues are still causing many problems in conveyancing and estate rent charge issues are threatening to become extreme importance in the mere future. The course looks at some of the issues and some of the problems and their solutions.

Topics covered include:

- Ground rent issues and escalating ground rents
- The problem of creating an assured tenancy
- Service charge liability issues, in particular in the light of Grenfell Tower
- Estate rent charges and reasonableness
- Reporting to the lender and estate rent charges
- Remedies of non-payment of estate rent charges

Richard Snape has been the Head of Professional Support at Davitt Jones Bould since 2002. He speaks at numerous courses for law societies all over the country, various public courses, in-house seminars within solicitors' firms and has also talked extensively to local authorities and central government bodies. His areas of specialism include both commercial and residential property, in particular in relation to local government law, conveyancing issues, development land, commercial property and incumbrances in relation to land.
